

2016 Women in Music Speaker

Dr. Jacqueline Mattingly

Dr. Jacqueline Mattingly currently serves as a Lecturer of Music at UNL where her duties include teaching Arts: 1945 - Present. Prior to arriving at UNL, Mattingly served as Director of Instrumental Activities at the University of North Carolina Asheville, where she directed the String Ensemble, Concert Band and Pep Band, and taught applied horn . Previous teaching positions also include Lecturer of Music at Western Carolina University and Assistant Professor of Music at Dickinson State University.

Mattingly earned a Doctorate of Music in Horn Performance from the University of North Carolina Greensboro, Master of Music in Horn from the University of Calgary, and Bachelor of Music from Brandon University in Canada. She has also studied horn at the Banff Centre of the Fine Arts. Mattingly has served as a horn instructor at the International Music Camp in North Dakota, has taught at UNC Greensboro's Summer Music Camp, and has given master classes throughout the US and Canada. Her performance venues range from playing professionally with numerous orchestras, chamber ensembles and solo performances. She currently serves as the Nebraska Representative to the International Horn Society.

2016 Tau Beta Sigma Midwest District Honoraries

Erika Pope- TBS National Vice President for Communication and Recognition

Erika Pope is a Life Member of the Theta Theta Chapter from Henderson State University. As a student, she was a member of several different HSU band ensembles including HSU's marching band "The Showband of Arkansas," the HSU concert and symphonic bands, as well as an auxiliary percussionist for "The NuFusion Project," which is HSU's jazz fusion ensemble. Upon graduating from Henderson in 2005, she earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Mass Media with a focus in radio/television broadcasting and a minor in music. From 2009 - 2015, Erika served as the Southwest District Counselor for Tau Beta Sigma. In her day life, she currently works for The Girl Scouts of Central Texas as a Membership Development Executive. In her spare time she likes running, road trips, watching movies, reading novels and rocking out on the drums with her party band The Big Dam Horns. Likes include The Spice Girls, moonlighting as a rock star, Sour Patch Kids, Dr. Pepper and working with the students of Tau Beta Sigma! She currently resides in College Station, TX.

Nic Rorrer- Midwest District Alumni Association President

Nic Rorrer is a Life Member of the Eta Beta Chapter of Kappa Kappa Psi at Virginia Tech. As a student he was heavily involved in the Marching Virginians as a proud member of the Baritone section and served as the band's Operation Officer during his senior year. In the fraternity Nic served as Chapter Secretary, Vice President and President as well as Northeast District Secretary/Treasurer from 2010-2011. Nic graduated with his B.S. degree in Chemical Engineering in 2011 and immediately started pursuing his PhD at the Colorado School of Mines under the tutelage of John Dorgan studying Polymer (Plastic) Processing, and subsequently completed his thesis in the Fall of 2015. Outside of his PhD studies Nic was involved with the music program at Mines serving as an Assistant to the Band Director since 2012. In addition, Nic has been the Chapter Sponsor of the Colorado School of Mines since January of 2012 and currently serves on the fraternity's Alumni Association Board of Directors. In addition to serving on the AABOD, Nic has been involved with the Midwest District Alumni association since 2012 serving as Member at Large for KKPsi from 2012-2013 and as MWDAA President since 2013 (However, Nic will be stepping down at this MWD Convention). In his daily life Nic is a Researcher at the National Renewable Energy Laboratory attempting to synthesize novel materials from bioderived feedstocks. In Nic's limited free time he enjoys hanging out with his dog Bayou, practicing yoga, continuing to serve as the Xi chapter sponsor, and eating good food. He currently resides in Golden, CO.

